

Inspiring Classes & Talks

With Rev. Marcia MacLean

Spiritual Educator & Speaker

Converting Possibility to Reality One Dream at a Time

Whether we're gathered in a classroom, a sanctuary, on a beach or a mountaintop, teaching and speaking about empowering spiritual principles is my greatest joy.

That's because it always leads us to awakening more to our magnificence, possibility and purpose as a human family.

I'd love to share that joy with you and your group. Let me know what you're aiming to achieve and we'll create it together.

Possibility awaits!
